Remember that the ladies of the Presbyterian Church will hold a festival on Christmas eve, to which all are invited.

Should the "whiskey cases" now being talked of at Humboldt be tried we can look for a big crowd in town next week.

The Presbyterian Congregation will hold their services in the Court House again next Sabbath. Preaching at 10:30 a. m., and Sunday School at 3 p. m.

It is possible that some of our young people will not be so anxious to form the acquaintance of commercial men since the late unpleasant affair in town.

While other improvements are being pushed, some man can make himself an enduring monument by working up a gravel road company to repair the river road west of town.

Mr. G. R. Canatsey, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever was supposed to be in a dying condition Tuesday, but at last reports was still battling manfully against the grim destroyer.

Rev. J. P. Ash, the Baptist State Sunday School Missionary, will conduct the New Year Valley Sunday School Institute at the Baptist Church in Iola, Dec. 21st and 22d. Look for the programme next week.

Mrs. C. M. Simpson received a gift from her step-grand-mother, Mrs. Phenix, of Emporia, this week which will long be kept to remind her of the donor. The quilt is composed of 6,400 pieces and is the fourth one made during the present year.

The house and contents belonging to Travis Farmer, near Elizabethtown, was burned last Sunday night while he was away from home. No insurance, and loss about $300. It supposed to be the work of an incendiary who first robbed the building.

There is a co-operative cheese factory at Americus, Lyon county, which has recently declared neat dividends. Cheese making will pay as well in Allen county as anywhere, and we hope Mr. Port will soon have his arrangements made to furnish good cheese in this market. Capt. Stewart, of Cottage Grove, has followed the business for years and has made it pay.

Mr. W. M. Knapp, of Muncie, Ind., has been in Iola looking up a location for a carriage factory, and arrangements are now in progress to secure his location at this place. A generous support should be given those who are working for such enterprises as they are just what is needed to make our boom a permanent one. There are other facts connected herewith which at present are not public property, but enough is known to make certain of his location should present arrangements be consummated.

The best theatrical entertainment now traveling in Kansas is Mason & Morgan's Company, producing "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It was the only company that have ever been compelled to refund money on account of not being able to accommodate the audience. At an unusually early hour the hall was packed and standing room commanded a premium. The performance throughout was superb, every part being ably sustained. The character of little "Eva," assumed by Mabel Noyes, was undoubtedly the best of all, and the child surprised and delighted the audience by her magnificent acting and singing. Should this company be able to return again during this season or next, they would receive an audience that would tax any hall to accommodate. The company is first-class in every respect.

A few weeks since a number of the friends of the prohibition law commenced holding a series of temperance meetings in Humboldt, and as a result of these meetings a committee was appointed to confer with the temperance workers at Iola, with a view to forming a joint stock company, for the enforcement of the temperance law; and also for the purpose of creating public sentiment in favor of said law.

To this end a meeting was arranged for and held at the Methodist Church in this city last Wednesday evening, which was addressed by L. W. Keping, of Humboldt, who made an able argument in favor of the prohibition law and an earnest appeal to the people for its enforcement. The intention of this movement, so far as we have been able to learn, is to form a county organization or league, to consist of organizations in each township, all of which will hold meetings at stated periods for the purpose of keeping up an interest in the temperance cause. A constitution is to be adopted, and all who become members will be required to subscribe for at least one share of the stock of the organization. Stock to be issued in shares of five dollars each, which will be liable to assessment to assist in the prosecution of all violations of the prohibition law, and any other expenses connected with the work for the advancement of the temperance cause. This movement is defined by one of the leading spirits in it to be a "calm, deliberate, cold-blooded determination on the part of the friends of the prohibition law in Allen county to see that it is enforced."

To what extent the temperance people will subscribe for the stock of this new company, remains yet to be seen. The leaders in this movement, together with the attorneys they have employed, are men who will make it "unpleasant" for violators of the law in this county if a sufficient amount of stock is subscribed for.
